

We are proud and happy to present to you the first DVD by Chippenham's own Wil Hodgson. Go Faster Stripe think the world would be a better place if Wil was a household name, but as he admits himself the world is not quite ready for an overweight pink haired toy collector with the mind of a teenage lesbian. Until that day, we present his first DVD to you. This will be like nothing you have seen or heard before – unless of course you have already seen him. Either way you are in for a treat.

"...an undeniable talent...a genuine find"
Telegraph

"Hodgson's strength is his ability to weave a story that engages you completely...he's a skilful comic storyteller" BBC Radio 7

"Wil Hodgson's frantically hilarious routine is about being an outsider, but then what would you expect from an ex-skinhead with a My Little Pony fixation" The List

"He is a true individual storyteller for all the jilted generation, one with all the potential to be a true cult hero" Chortle
