

Thank you for buying the super extended set of extras.
You must really like the Hitler Moustache.

I suppose you'd be wondering if disc 3 can add anything to what was said in disc 1 and 2.

Discs which were, it has to be said, already bulging with extras.

I can reveal that this disc contains the third video podcast from Collings and Herrin, in which they discuss non topical subjects such as films that Rich hasn't seen and how Andrew might be greeted by a robot from the future. We've also got a short film about the hoo-ha caused by the Guardian missing the point of the show, a documentary on Rich's visit to York City football club, and several little films Rich made just before going on stage during the tour.

There's more than that of course
- but I'll leave the other stuff to surprise you.
