

So there's this man, and he walks into a pub.

Wil Hodgson's stories often sound like they might be told leaning on the bar with a pint in your hand, so where better to film his second DVD than the lounge of The Three Crowns

- Wil's actual local?

Well, we couldn't think of one, so the GFS team jumped into Chris Brown's estate car, and headed for Chippenham.

The show we recorded melds his 2009 Edinburgh show Punkanory, with other stories from his repertoire, whilst we drank real ale in front of a cosy fire.

We've also got a packed bonus disc for you. It features a preview from the Frog and Bucket, and almost all of a preview from Buckles, Chippenham's favourite chip shop.

And if that wasn't enough, we are also led on a sight seeing tour around the locations Wil talks about in his show.

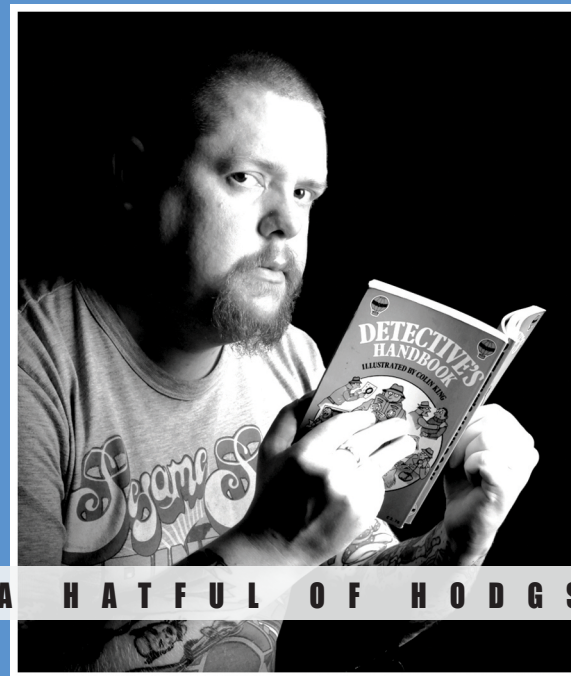

More you say? Well - how about WilFacts™? Where we present an optional subtitle trivia track that plays along with the video.
