

Hello! Thanks for reading the writing on the back of this DVD, which is the third disc in the Nine Lessons and Carols series. It features a recording of one of Robin Ince's science based Christmas celebration shows from 2011.

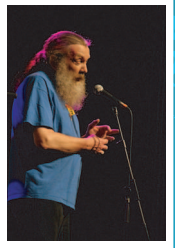

Watching this is like watching the Royal Institution Christmas lecture crossed with the Royal Variety Show. It's informative, funny and you never know what's coming next.

And it has a star stuffed lineup – this DVD features Robin Ince, Richard Herring, Steve Mould, Helen Arney and Matt Parker from the Festival of the Spoken Nerd, Isy Suttie, Marcus du Sautoy, Jo Neary, Gavin Osborn, Ian Stone, Grace Pertie, Nick Doody, Josie Long and Alan Moore.

"If there's one thing I can't stand... it's the creeping commercialisation of secular Christmas shows"

Stewart Lee
