

Hopefully this is the least worst, but there might have been some things that were less worse that I forgot. These are ideas that popped up in various Edinburgh fringe stand up shows that were never filmed. It is a hotch potch, a confusion and a primal scream at times from a mind confused. I meant it all at the time, I wonder if I still do now.

Robin Ince, 2013

We've tried to push the technical limits of what a DVD can do with this release. The twenty three tracks that make up The Very Least Worst of Robin Ince will be shown in a different order each time you watch the show, and will be prefaced by one of eight different introduction videos.
