

Word has spread far and wide about the spirit medium from Sunderland. "Montfort" was his name – and he was "the best".

Ian D Montfort is a normal man with an extraordinary gift – and although he's not sure where it came from – he is happy to share it. He feels it an honour to be chosen by the spirit world as a medium for their teachings. Ian has therefore produced this DVD to allow fans and followers alike to experience his abilities first hand, without the need for additional expense to travel to theatres.

This disc features a full show from Ian D Montfort as well as an award winning short starring hospital radio DJ Ivan Brackenbury and an interview with the actor Tom Binns. There are also some hidden features, but to experience them you will have to clear your mind for the energy to flow around you. Failing that, there are further instructions printed on the disc.

"Ian D Montfort, a gloriously deadpan pseudo-psychic. His show... begins with laughable attempts to work the audience and then Binns starts unleashing faintly inexplicable clairvoyant revelations, leaving most of the room gasping with incredulity. So he can spoof it, and really 'do it' " Telegraph ★★★★★
